Dear Parents and Carers,

We are excited to let you know that we will be celebrating World Book Day at school on Friday 6th March.

This year, our theme is "Twisted Fairy Tales" – a fun and imaginative way to explore familiar stories with a creative twist. Throughout the day, children will take part in a range of exciting reading and writing activities inspired by classic fairy tales that have been retold, reimagined, or turned upside down!

To help bring the day to life, we are inviting children to come to school dressed up as a fairy tale character. This could be a traditional character (such as Little Red Riding Hood, a prince or princess, or the Big Bad Wolf) or a twisted version with a creative spin. Costumes do not need to be elaborate – simple, homemade outfits are absolutely fine.

World Book Day is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate our love of reading and to encourage children to see books as exciting, enjoyable, and full of possibility. We are really looking forward to seeing the children's creativity and enthusiasm on the day.

From Monday 2nd March until World Book Day we will be selling Wonka's chocolate bars, some of these will have a golden ticket inside which means a winner!! There will be some exciting prizes for the children to win and some delicious chocolate to enjoy... all in honour of Roald Dahl himself! Please send the money in with your child next week in a named envelope to purchase these for just £2.00 each.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to speak to a member of staff.

Kind regards,

Mrs Parkinson
