Wednesday 1st October

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are excited to let you know that our school will be enjoying a special theatre visit of *Peter Pan on Friday 17th October. This will be a wonderful opportunity for the children to experience live theatre and join in the magic of this classic story.

To make the day extra special, children are invited to come dressed as their favourite Peter Pan characters. They might like to be Peter Pan, Wendy, Captain Hook, Tinker Bell, the Lost Boys, the Crocodile, or even a cheeky pirate – the choice is theirs! Simple costumes or accessories are absolutely fine, and there is no expectation to buy anything new.

We kindly ask for a £1 donation per child to help contribute towards the cost of the visit. Please send this in with your child in a named envelope or via the School Money App.

We are very much looking forward to sharing this magical experience with the children and thank you for your support in making the day so enjoyable.

Yours sincerely,
Louisa Parkinson
Deputy Headteacher
