Thursday 2nd July 2020

Dear Parents/Carers,

Tomorrow you will receive a text message that will tell you which class your child will be in from September. As I write this letter we are awaiting guidance later in the day as to what September will look like for our pupils. I will write at a later date when myself and senior leaders have put a plan in place for September opening. The teaching profile for next year will look like this:

Nursery:	Mrs Nuttall
Class 1:	Mrs Polita (who is covering Miss Sheehan's maternity leave)
Class 2:	Mrs Pilling
Class 3:	Miss Worsley
Class 4:	Miss Hayward
Class 5:	Mrs Parkinson
Class 6:	Miss Hilson
Class 7:	Miss Thomas
Class 8:	Miss Mahmood
Class 9:	Mrs Pandor
Class 10:	Miss Ward
Class 11:	Mr McKean

Miss Swindells is now back from her maternity leave and from September she will be working in classes across KS1 and EYFS, including the Nursery. Mrs Patel will continue to support Miss Ward in Class 10 and the Year 6 team.

On Monday 13th July we will begin to send end of year reports to parents electronically. Please make sure that if you have an email address you email office@st-james-farnworth.bolton.sch.uk with your child's name in the subject box so that we have this information. If you do not have an email address then please ring the school office to make us aware.

At the end of each academic year we award 'Pupil of the Year' to two children in each year group. We are still going to do this. School will contact the parents of the children who have received the awards in the last week of term over the telephone to share this good news.

School will be closed for the summer break from Friday 17th July for all pupils, including those who are in the keyworker/vulnerable groups; teachers will not be setting any online learning during this time. We reopen to all pupils on Monday 7th September and I will be in touch soon to make you aware of what that will look like.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs L Belfield
Principal
