Wednesday 24th February

Dear Parents/Carers,

As you are all aware we would normally be celebrating World Book Day on the 4th March but, unfortunately, this year we will have to do it virtually! We are publishing The Masked Reader videos on our Facebook Page regularly in the lead up to World Book Day just for fun, please have a look if you can, and see if you can guess 'Who's that behind the mask?'

We are also asking children who are accessing learning remotely (at home) to take part in an Extreme Reading competition at home. This is where your child finds somewhere unusual to read and you take a photo of them and send it in to our school Facebook page or their class's Seesaw or Tapestry account. We will share these on Facebook on the big day itself! An alternative to this is to create a 'Reading Den' where you make a den at home and take a picture of your children reading inside. Feel free to do both if you would like or just choose one to do together! There will be a prize for the best one of these for each phase including Early Years (Little Saints, Nursery and Reception), Key Stage One (Years 1 and 2), Lower Key Stage Two (Year 3 and 4) and Upper Key Stage Two (Years 5 and 6).

We are really looking forward to seeing your entries to our World Book Day Competition and we plan to do something late on in the year, if we are able, to celebrate the wonderful world of books!

Regards,
Mrs Parkinson
